

The question has been posed. How should we describe Trump? There has been a lot of Trump bashing. But there is another perspective on Trump, another side of the coin that shows Trump is God's man for this precise time in history.

I would describe Trump this way...

(1) Trump loves Israel. More than any other American President in history, he is like king Cyrus of old, who returned Israel back to the Holy City Jerusalem. Trump's comparison to Cyrus comes from the prime minister of Israel himself, Benjamin Netanyahu and many other Israelis like Jerusalem Post's Caroline Glick. It comes because of Trump's recent relocating of the American embassy to Jerusalem on the 70th year anniversary of the state of Israel. Trump is the only president with the courage to follow a law enacted by Congress in 1987. We are getting to witness something unprecedented and something rare like a miracle. Just as God put the pagan king Cyrus in power just at the right time at the end of Israel's 70 years of captivity to fulfill Jeremiah's prophecy, so Trump comes precisely at the right time in history to establish Jerusalem as Israel's capitol in the eyes of the world. This must happen in order for the third Temple ultimately (and very soon) to be built on the Temple Mount at the time of the prophesied Jacob's troubles or Tribulation. Trump's love of Israel (so contrasted to Obama's antipathy of Israel) alone justifies the Christian saying he is God's man for this precise hour in history.

(2) Trump loves America. His America First campaign emphasizes the return to American values of God and country. He is returning many overseas companies back to America and returning jobs to the American people. The cynical decision of CEO's to go where the cheap labor is is no longer an acceptable practice in America. Trump is backing up his words with big fines to businesses who don't participate in Trump's new vision for America. Trump is furthermore safeguarding our national sovereignty, not giving-in any longer to the globalists who see us all as part of the new world order submitting to the will of the UN. He is making our trade deals much more equitable, no longer requiring the US to pay the bulk of the trade penalties. Trump is bringing pride back in America, which was lost during the Obama years of multiculturalism. America was founded by men who believed the Constitution is our rule of law that all people no matter color or creed must submit to and live by. Trump is bringing these values back to America and saving us from falling into the power of world gov't.

(3) More than any president since Ronald Reagan, Trump is sensitive to Christian issues such as the right to life, and the right to oppose gay marriage and promote Biblical marriage in the pulpits and in public. Trump is taking steps to defund Planned Parenthood. Trump recently refused to acknowledge Gay pride month for the second time. He refused in his first year of office too. This is a powerful message to Christians that we are free to oppose LGBTQ agenda, while his administration won't pursue harassing the Christian community for their public Biblical stances of sex and marriage. This isn't stopping California of course from trying to pass laws to make it illegal to change a gay person back to normal, and teaching LGBTQ agenda is sin. But Trump's example is a powerful force against such evil laws that go against Biblical teaching.

(4) Trump opposes globalism. This is HUGE! He opposed and refused to sign the Obama/EU global warming accord. He stopped the renewing of the Obama/EU Iran nuclear weapons agreement. Trump moved the American embassy to Jerusalem. He opposes EU open border illegal immigration policies. He is promoting trade deals that protect America and are more equitable between parties. All of these actions put Trump on the globalist's hit list of reasons to hate him, and puts him on a collision course with Satan's man of sin as a prominent ANTI-AntiChrist. Trump's anti-globalism stance is the second greatest reason to believe Trump is God's man for this precise time in history. He is delaying the Antichrist's program of world gov't for a season, while making America a shining example to the world of what it still means to be a sovereign nation.

I hope you understand that globalism, world gov't, new world order (whatever you want to call it) was a foregone conclusion with all other presidents (Christian or otherwise) in the Whitehouse. Trump has alone, for a short season, stopped that forward progress of selling America away to the EU/Arab/UN. That is HUGE.

(5) Trump appears beholden to no one, but his own ideas. This is great news and essential for changing OLD PARADIGMS that desperately need to be changed. Both political parties hate him. The EU hates him. The Arabs hate him. The UN hates him. The globalists, especially the powerful George Soros, hate him. The feminists hate him. The LGBTQ hate him. The progressive left major media hates him. Hollywood hates him. The progressive church hates him. Yet he maintains a strong Christian base that supports him, even loves him. I love this about Trump, that he is not a puppet politician. Trump is truly changing things, and his many enemies hate him for it.

(6) Trump said in a speech to the NRA recently that he LOVES THE FIGHT. That is excellent news for Christians, as he needs to be a warrior with unpenetratable armor in order to win the many battles and give us this brief season of relative calm before the storm to share the message of Christ. Think about it. If you are almost completely alone fighting literally the world, how are you going to win the daily battles if you don't have armor, while everyone is calling you every evil name in the book and then some? Trump is God's man at this precise time in history to accomplish what is supposed to be accomplished.

(7) Trump shouldn't have won the election according to virtually every political pundit in the world, but he did. That either makes the pundits incredibly stupid or absolute liars. Or it makes Trump's victory a complete miracle, and that would mean Trump is God's man for this precise time in history.

(8) Trump is being subjected to the greatest negative media propaganda campaign in the history of American politics. One Harvard report states,

"No U.S. president has received as much coverage or as much negative coverage as Donald Trump in the modern media age, the report concluded after reviewing the first 100 days of media reports from seven U.S. print and broadcast outlets and three foreign media outlets."

And the press coverage has only gotten worse to the point that Trump uses his Twitter account to communicate directly to the people. Is it any wonder that if you watch or read the major media relative to Trump, that you will come away with an extremely biased negative opinion of Trump?

What I did long ago was to turn off CNN and the major network news; threw away the Tulsa World, New York Times and the LA Times; turned off Hollywood; and threw away the news magazines; and I even ignore the SBC Ethics Commission, who have tried to connect Trump to white supremacy. I am now breathing the clean air again and have given my brain freedom from the constant barrage of Trump bashing that is not based on reason and evidence, but pure emotion and hatred.

Think about it. Trump is changing the paradigm right before our eyes. Do you think the progressive left who own the media, who own education, who own world politics are going to lay down their arms and surrender? No way! They are going to do the opposite, and go for broke, and they don't care how they do it by hook or crook. They are rolling the dice and betting everything on a high stakes gamble to try to stop Trump in his tracks. Trump isn't playing ball the way every other politician has in history, so they have to try to get rid of him to stop him.

I recommend on the other hand, you go for alternative news sources, such as: Caroline Glick editor of the Jerusalem Post, and recently acquired by Breitbart. Breitbart is another good source. Worldnetdaily comes to mind. Franklin Graham on Facebook; he has the ear of the president and often comments on news and how Christians should respond. On YouTube, Amir Tsarfati's Behold Israel gives the Jewish Christian's perspective of world news. On Twitter, I connect with Derek Gilbert and Nigel Farage. Gatewaypundit.com is another edgy, but good source. Also, the local newspaper Beacon is good. These are just a select few of my sources that I have researched.

(9) The completely fake Russian dossier perpetrated against Trump, and still being perpetrated against him, and the so-called Russian hacking of the election, even though there is not a scintilla of truth in it, is unprecedented in American politics. We expect this kind of propaganda in Nazi Germany, but not in America. The CIA, the FBI, Obama, Hillary, Senator McCain, special counsel Mueller, the British Intelligence and many other greater or lesser players all have their hands dirtied in this complete and utter highstakes dirty politics lying game. All done to unseat a democratically elected president, and to cover the rearends of the real perpetrators who masterminded spygate.

Here is what one political commentator said about spygate:

“As I think most persons paying attention now realize, the investigation into foreign interference with the 2016 election was created as a cover for domestic interference with the 2016 election.”

That is a good summarization of what is going on with Mueller's investigation. Which by the way has turned up zero evidence against Trump but involuntarily discovered a bounty of crimes perpetrated against Trump and the American people. The real criminals are trying to stick Trump with the blame of their own sins. Enough already. Shut down the investigation, and turn the lights on Hillary and Obama and the rest of the gang of fake heroes, and bring real justice to America and the world.

(10) With Trump is a time when the church should flourish to do the hard work of firmly speaking TRUTH IN LOVE to a world that desperately needs to hear God's warning. The church can do this especially during Trump's CALM BEFORE THE STORM without fear of harassment from the Whitehouse or presidential orders to try to stop us. The Lord's coming is closer than it ever has been. The signs of Christ's return are everywhere, not the least of which is Israel, God's prophetic time clock. The watershed issue of our day without doubt is the LGBTQ agenda, and Trump is sensitive to our position. At a time when much of the church is caving to the gay agenda, we should be marshaling our forces and preaching the tough love of Romans 1. Paul's prophecy that "evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived" is never more accurate than today. Never in history until now has a nation and world promoted transgender on our children, deeming it right to fill them with chemicals that supposedly changes their sex, but sterilizes them forever. This is beyond tragic and is nothing less than Satanic. Trump is the CALM BEFORE THE STORM for true believers in Christ to counter these evil times in which we live.

Jesus said,

"And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draws nigh."
